

British Association for the Study of the Liver Nurses Forum
Royal College of Physicians, London

Thursday, 8 September 2011
7th Annual meeting

09.00	-	09.25	Registration
09.25	-	09.30	Welcome Amanda Clements Chair BASLNF
09.30	-	10.00	Viral hepatitis liaison midwifery Tracey Maccormack and Glenda McCurdy, King's College Hospital
10.00	-	10.20	Hepatitis C Protease inhibitors – the pharmacology Sarah Knighton, Senior Pharmacist, King's College Hospital
10.20	-	10.40	Managing the side effect profile of Protease inhibitors from a nursing perspective Louise Campbell, Imperial College Hospital
10.40	-	11.10	TEA & COFFEE
11.10	-	11.30	The pathophysiology of ascites and nursing management Lynda Greenslade, Royal Free Hospital
11.30	-	11.50	Nurse led paracentesis service and audit Deborah Durrant, Gloucester NHS Trust
11.50	-	12.10	Alcohol hospital liaison practitioner Louise Dunn, Plymouth Hospitals NHS Trust
12.10	-	12.30	Community alcohol detox service Sian Ellyatt, Plymouth Hospitals NHS Trust
12.30	-	13.00	Prison Project and Alcohol PROMS Sarah Matthews, British Liver Trust
13.00	-	14:00	LUNCH
14:00	-	15.00	Developing models of Hepatology Provision – a nursing perspective Amanda Clements, Plymouth Hospitals NHS Trust
			The national liver strategy and the role of the nurse advisor Anne Mogor, Department of Health
			Developing an e-learning resource for Healthcare practitioners working with patients with Liver disease – what do you want? Audience feedback session
15.00	-	15.30	COFFEE
15.30	-	15.55	Liver transplantation services Katie Ramos, Transplant assessment & Hepatocellular Cancer Nursing Service, Plymouth Hospitals NHS Trust
15.55	-	16.25	Updates of Liver Transplantation and the Ethical considerations Wendy Littlejohn, King's College Hospital
16.25			Closing remarks & evaluation

Sponsors

