

BAAL Educational Event

Living with Liver Disease: Redefining Healthcare Through the Power of the Patient Voice

Date: Friday 26th June 2026

Location: Edgbaston Park Hotel

BAAL is supported by sponsors including pharmaceutical companies. Pharmaceutical companies have solely provided financial sponsorship, with no input into the arrangements or agenda of the meeting, except where indicated. A full list of sponsors can be found here: HERE

Registration/Refreshments: 9:30 -10:00
Through Their Eyes: The Reality of Living with Liver Disease Session Chairs: Felicity Williams and Suzanne Lester
10:00-10:15	Welcome and introduction	Dr Felicity Williams (BAAL Chair)
10:15-11:00	Ask the Expert: Exploring the Real Challenges Patients Face	Patient interviews
Break: refreshments - tea/coffee: 11.00-11:25
The Clinician Perspective: Responding to Complex Patient Burden Session Chairs: Alice Freer and Ben Hayes
11:25-12:05	From Patient Voice to Intervention: Co-Designing Solutions to Real-World Challenges	Dr Suzanne Lester Ms Ashlea Hargreaves (Physiotherapists Belfast and Birmingham)
12:05-12:30	Medication Adherence: Improving Outcomes in Real-World Practice	Pharmacist - TBC
Lunch: 12:30-13:30

Afternoon session

Developing and Expanding Liver Services: Learning from Multidisciplinary Models

Session Chairs: Lynsey Kisala and Alison Bright

13:30-14:00	Embedding Supportive Care in Liver Disease: A Multidisciplinary Team Model	TBC – Nurse and AHP (from 2 hospital locations)
14.00-14.30	Leading the Liver Journey: Specialist Nurse-Led Care Across the Pathway and Opportunities for AHP Integration	Ms Sara Bardell and Mrs Joanne McDonagh (Clinical Nurse Specialists, Birmingham)
14:30-15:00	Group/Table discussions: reflecting on change pathways within your Trust	All
15:00-15:20	Summary and feedback from tables	Dr Kate Hallsworth & Ms Leah Cox (Physiotherapist, Newcastle, Dietitian, Barts London)
15:20-15:30	Summary and closing remarks	Dr Felicity Williams (BAAL Chair)

BAAL would like to thank our sponsors and can confirm they have had no influence or input into the programme, agenda or content of the meeting.

