

British Liver Nurses' Association

Nurse Meeting

19 - 20 September 2018
University of York, UK

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Liver transplant standards
- RCN competence framework
- Hepatitis C and liver transplant
- Community and liver nursing
- Homelessness
- Mental health
- Ascites research
- Nurse led services

Register Now @
www.baslannualmeeting.org.uk

British Liver Nurses' Association

Warwick Arts Centre
21 September

British Liver Nurses' Association

Do you care for liver patients or those at risk of liver disease but feel you need more knowledge and support?

Your nurse membership of BLNA will offer you access to the support you need to improve your patients' care including:

- ✓ breaking news
- ✓ networking opportunities
- ✓ e-learning services
- ✓ downloadable resources
- ✓ reduced fees to nurse meetings & bursaries to national meetings

Would you like:

- support in the advancement of good clinical practice
- the ability to be involved in, receive promote and disseminate patient-focused research
- educational support and educational opportunities
- to be involved in a collaborative and multi-disciplinary approach to caring for people with liver disease

If YES, Join us today

Only £20.00 a year

Visit the BASL website to apply www.basl.org.uk

To JOIN the BLNA through BASL, or for more information contact BASL at admin@basl.org.uk or Tel: +44(0)1543 442154

www.basl.org.uk

Follow us: @livernursing