

Back to the Future - Current and New Therapies for Young Adults with Liver Disease

Thursday 1st February 2024

Burlington Hotel, Birmingham

Programme
Time	Presentation/Session	Speaker/Chair
08:30 – 09:15	Coffee and registration
09:15 – 09:30	Welcome and introduction	Dr Tessa Cacciottolo, University of Cambridge
Current therapies
09:30 – 09:50	Model of care: Which is the best?	Dr Sophie Cant, King's College Hospital
09:50 – 10:10	Self-Management: Does it work in reality?	Dr Jemma Day, King's College Hospital
10:10 – 10:30	Incorporating digital technology into daily practice	Speaker TBC
10:30 – 10:45	Panel discussion
10:45 – 11:10	Coffee break
New therapies
11:10 – 11:30	What is the impact of new IBD therapies on the liver?	Dr Philip Hendy, Chelsea & Westminster Hospital NHS Foundation Trust
11:30 – 11:50	Endoscopic in Young Adults	Dr Ioanna Parisi, University College London Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
11:50 – 12:10	When to refer a YA for LT?	Dr Lee Claridge, Leeds Teaching Hospitals
12:10 – 12:20	Panel discussion
12:20 – 13:20	Lunch
Clinical trials
13:20 – 13:50	Participating in a clinical trial – Patient/parent perspectives	Dr James Ferguson, University of Birmingham
13:50 – 14:20	IBAT inhibitors for cholestatic liver diseases	Dr Jeremy Shanika Nayagam, King's College Hospital
14:20 – 14:50	New agents and perspectives in rare diseases	Dr Bill Griffiths, Cambridge University Hospitals
14:50 – 15:20	Fatty liver disease – Will we need combo therapy?	Dr Tessa Cacciottolo, University of Cambridge
15:20 – 15:40	UK guidelines	Dr Deepak Joshi, King's College Hospital
15:40 – 15:50	Discussion	