

HCC-UK 2019
14th – 15th March

Venue:
The Studio, Birmingham

“A Personalised Medicine
Approach to Optimise Care
in Hepatocellular Cancer”

Call for Abstracts:
Submission deadline: 30th January 2019

Lectures will be for the whole team involved covering various medical disciplines delivered by leading UK experts.

Programme

Thursday 14th March 2019

Biomarkers in NASH/HCC

Research update Leeds

Research update Cambridge

The future outlook for HCC therapy and research questions that still need answering

HCC management and outcomes – the perspective from Ireland

The therapeutic potential of NK cells in HCC

Cell therapy for HCC

Friday 15th March 2019

Session 1: Transplantation/Surgery

Update on criteria for transplant selection for HCC

National Allocation with a focus on liver transplantation for HCC

Debate – Early HCC should be managed with surgical resection rather than transplantation

Session 2: HCC and Viral Hepatitis

Stratified Medicine for HCC surveillance in Hepatitis B/C patients
(implications of DAA etc)

Immunopathogenesis of Hep B and its implications for HCC therapy

Session 3: Oncology

New Therapeutic targets for HCC

Endpoints in clinical trials of new therapies for HCC

Results of national sorafenib biopsy study

Session 4: Clinical Scenarios

Case Discussions: Tumour Board - Radiology/Pathology

The impact of dietetic input in the HCC clinic

Conference Secretariat

c/o INDEX COMMUNICATIONS MEETING SERVICES

Crown House, 28 Winchester Road, Romsey, Hampshire, SO51 8AA, UK

Tel: +44 (0) 1794 511331/511332 E-Mail: HCC@indexcommunications.com

www.hcc-uk.org