

Overcoming inequalities in care pathways for liver disease – best practice sharing event

Edgbaston Park Hotel & Conference Centre; Fry Suite, B15 2RS

27th March 2025

Time	Topic	Speaker	Affiliation
0945	Welcome	Ryan Buchanan	University of Southampton
1000	Why are we here? A patient's story... What are we trying to get out of this?	Patient/Peer Ryan Buchanan
1020 - 1040	Health inequalities – a national healthcare system perspective	Mark Gillion-Powell	NHSE
1040-1055	Inclusion health - a national perspective	Prof Andrew Hayward	UCL/UKHSA
1055 - 1110	Health inequalities & liver disease a public health perspective	Kate Glyn-Owen	University of Southampton
1110-1135	Coffee
1135 1150	Overcoming inequalities in access to care through the NHSE pilots	NHS England team
1150 - 1250	NHSE Early diagnosis of liver disease pilot site case studies	Various
1250-1330	Panel discussion: Challenges and solutions at a service level	Various
1:30-2:15	Lunch
215-230	Peers – how they work and how their role has evolved	Stuart Smith	Hepatitis C trust
230-300	NIHR liver health collaborations – what did we discover – next steps for research in this space?	Various	Various
3 - 320	Liver health inequalities – a subspeciality focus – BASL specialist interest group leads	Richard Parker TBC Ahmed El Sharkawy	Leeds Birmingham
320-4pm	Panel discussion – research opportunities, potential for innovation	Richard Parker TBC Ahmed El Sharkawy NIHR collaboration leads	Leeds Birmingham Various
4-420	Learning from the day – bringing it all together, what happens next	Ryan Buchanan
420 - 430	Close	Ryan Buchanan

