

2nd March 2018

The Hallam Conference Centre, 44 Hallam Street, London, W1W 6JJ

Programme

HIV, the liver and co-infection

09:30 – 09:40 Welcome and introduction: Dr Ahmed Elsharkawy and Prof Graham Cooke

HIV and the liver

09:40 – 10:00 HIV and fatty liver disease – Dr Lucy Garvey, Imperial College, London

10:00 – 10:20 HIV related infections of the liver – Dr Ben Stone, Royal Hallamshire Hospital, Sheffield

10:20 – 10:40 DILI and HIV – Prof David Mutimer, University of Birmingham, Birmingham

10.40 – 11.00 Coffee break

11:00 – 11:20 Transplantation in HIV (with emphasis on co-infection) – Dr Kosh Agarwal, Kings College London

11:20 – 12:05 Hepatitis B: new drugs and co-infection – Dr Suman Verma, Kings College London

12:05 – 12:15 Comfort Break

12:15 – 13:00 Symposium sponsored by Gilead

13:00 – 14:00 Lunch

Acute infection and re-infection

14:00 – 14:30 Keynote Speaker: Acute hepatitis, drug resistance and retreatment – Dr Patrick Ingiliz, Center for Infectiology, Berlin, Germany

14:30 – 14:45 Chemsex: The patient's perspective – Dr David Rowlands, DR-web.co.uk

14:45 – 15:00 Chemsex: A clinical/public health perspective – Dr Alison Rogers, Royal Free Hospital, London.

15:00 – 15:20 The future of HCV epidemic in MSM – Dr Peter Vickerman, University of Bristol

15:20 – 15:50 European approaches to elimination of hepatitis – Prof Jeffrey Lazarus, University of Barcelona, Spain

15:45 – 16:00 Panel discussion and conclusion – Dr Ahmed Elsharkawy and Prof Graham Cooke.

Sponsors

Premier sponsors

Key Supporter