

VIRUSES, VACCINES AND ERADICATION

Thursday 6 June 2019, QEII Centre, London

A one day conference dedicated to providing academics and clinicians with novel information for scientific debate on the topic of reducing global disease through virus elimination and eradication conference in collaboration with:

6 CPD credits approved with the Royal College of Pathologists. CPD also applied for with the Royal College of Physicians

Provisional Programme

0900-1700	Registration and exhibition open
0900-0905	Welcome and Introduction Professor Anna Maria Geretti, University of Liverpool
0905-0950	What does success look like? Chair: Professor Paul Griffiths, University College London
0905-0925	Global rinderpest eradication: a triumph for animal health, a great benefit to human health Dr Michael Baron, The Pirbright Institute
0925-0945	Is eradication of poliomyelitis in sight? Professor David Salisbury, Chair, WHO Global Commission for the Certification of Poliomyelitis Eradication
0945-0950	Q&A
0950-1015	Keynote lecture Offered in association with The BMJ STI Journal and BASHH Chair: Professor Olwen Williams, Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board, Wales
0950-1010	Will vaccination eliminate HPV disease? Dr Richard Gilson, University College London
1010-1015	Q&A
1015-1040	Morning Coffee
1040-1210	HIV: a paradigm of disease control? Chair: Professor Margaret Johnson, Royal Free London NHS Foundation Trust
1040-1055	Clinical Case 1 Dr Paul Hine, Royal Liverpool University Hospital
1055-1120	Have we won the clinical battle against HIV drug resistance? Moderator Professor Anna Maria Geretti The case for Dr Marta Boffito, Chelsea and Westminster Hospital, London The case against Dr Tristan Barber, Royal Free London NHS Foundation Trust
1120-1140	The myth or reality of an HIV cure: give us hope! Professor Sarah Fidler, Imperial College, London
1140-1210	Panel debate: What does the future hold for HIV? Dr Tristan Barber, Royal Free London NHS Foundation Trust Dr Marta Boffito, Chelsea and Westminster Hospital, London

	Mr Simon Collins, HIV i-Base Professor Sarah Fidler, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust, London Professor Anna Maria Geretti, University of Liverpool Dr Olwen Williams, Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board, Wales
1210-1320	Focus on Hepatitis C Chair: Mrs Fiona Marra, NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde
1210-1220	Clinical Case 2 Dr Brendan Healy, University Hospital of Wales, Cardiff
1220-1240	Latest guidance on hepatitis C drug resistance Dr Daniel Bradshaw, Public Health England
1240-1300	Is elimination of hepatitis C in sight for the UK? Professor Graham Foster, Queen Mary's, University of London and Barts Health NHS Trust, London
1300-1320	Panel debate: Hepatitis C in the UK: Successes, Challenges, and Opportunities Dr Sanjay Bhagani, Royal Free London NHS Foundation Trust Dr Daniel Bradshaw, Public Health England Professor Graham Foster, Queen Mary's, University of London and Barts Health NHS Trust, London Dr Brendan Healy, University Hospital of Wales, Cardiff Mrs Fiona Marra, NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde Dr Emma Thomson, University of Glasgow Centre for Virus Research
1320-1410	Lunch and networking
1410-1515	Focus on Hepatitis B offered in association with BASL / BVHG Chair: TBA
1410-1430	Theoretical opportunities and practical limitations of seeking to eradicate hepatitis B Dr Patrick Kennedy, Queen Mary's, University of London and Barts Health NHS Trust, London
1430-1450	Novel hepatitis B biomarkers for profiling and guiding management Professor Florian van Boemmel, University of Leipzig, Germany
1450-1515	Panel debate: What stands in the way of eliminating hepatitis B? Professor Florian van Boemmel, University of Leipzig, Germany Dr Patrick Kennedy, Queen Mary's, University of London and Barts Health NHS Trust, London Prof Shevanthi Nayagam, Imperial College London (TBC)
1515-1540	Afternoon tea
1540-1615	Focus on Hepatitis B continued Chair: TBA
1540-1550	Clinical Case 3 Dr Giovanni Villa, Brighton & Sussex Medical School
1550-1610	Forgotten, not gone: Hepatitis Delta in the world Dr Alexander Stockdale, University of Liverpool on behalf of the Delta Study Group
1610-1615	Q&A
1615-1655	The future Chair: Professor David Salisbury, Chair, WHO Global Commission for the Certification of Poliomyelitis Eradication
1615-1635	The next candidate for eradication: Is Measles on your list? Dr Kevin Brown, Public Health England
1635-1650	An emerging threat or sporadic events? Monkey pox Dr Mike Beadsworth, Royal Liverpool University Hospital
1650-1655	Q&A
1655-1700	Summary and Close Professor Paul Griffiths, University College London

With grateful thanks to our conference sponsors:

