

Draft programme – virtual meeting of the BASL EOL SIG – 8th October 2020

13:30-13:40	Introduction & welcome	Dr Ben Hudson
Session 1 – Long term abdominal drains
13:40 – 13:55	A case series of LTADs in refractory ascites – learning from the Birmingham experience	Dr Margaret Corrigan Liverpool University Hospitals NHS Trust
13:50 – 14:05	Current UK practice surrounding LTADs	Dr Sushma Saksena and Dr Jane Abbot The Royal London Hospital
14:05 -14:25	REDUCE study and further studies into LTADs	Professor Sumita Verma Brighton and Sussex Medical School
14:25 -14:35	Panel discussion
Session 2 – Access to palliative care for patients with end-stage liver disease
14:35 – 14:50	Access to palliative care for patients with advanced liver disease in England	Dr Hazel Woodland University Hospitals Bristol
14:50 – 15:05	Identifying patients with liver disease who require palliative care – a validation of existing scoring systems	Dr Joe Low University College London
15:05 – 15:20	Advanced liver disease MDTs – real world data	Dr Sam Thomson Western Sussex Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
15:20 – 15:30	Panel discussion
Session 3 – An update from the USA, and future international collaborations
15:30 – 15:50	An update on current liver palliative care research from the USA	Drs Nneka Ufere and Arpan Patel
15:50 – 16:00	Discussion on future collaborations
Session 4 – Plans and goals for the coming year
16:00 – 16:30	Group discussion (to include): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Future collaborations and grant applications • Palliative care metrics for IQILS • Palliative care on higher specialist hepatology curriculum 	